Head Constable,
'E' Company, VI Battalion,

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

In August 1965, Head Constable Sawai Singh was commanding a section of Central Reserve Police manning a picket in the Balnoi area of Jammu and Kashmir. From the 5th August, the picket was subjected to heavy shelling which continued till the 22nd August. On the 23rd, the shelling was intensified and a heavy attack was launched on the picket. Although very much outnumbered, the C.R.P. section faced the heavy onslaught courageously and fought off the hostile attack. During this critical period, Head Constable Sawai Singh moved from one position to another, encouraging his men to face the enemy. In doing so, he repeatedly exposed himself to enemy fire. Under his able leadership, the small C.R.P. force successfully repulsed the enemy attack.

Head Constable Sawai Singh exhibited gallantry, leadership and devotion to duty of a high order.
